

MADERO LEAVES MEXICO CITY

Fall of Government Will, it is Said, Follow His Departure.

REYES' SON SUICIDES.

Federals Guard Palace, But Say They Will Not Attack Diaz—Members of the Cabinet Resign.

Mexico City, Feb. 10.—President Madero has fled from the capital.

General Blanquet, with a part of the force of 400 federals he was leading to this city, marched up near the national palace early today. The commander announced that he would not attack General Felix Diaz.

Two hundred and fifty persons are dead as the result of the battles that have been intermittent since Saturday night. Following the death of Gen. Bernardo Reyes, who was killed in fighting in front of the national palace, his son, Rodolfo, overcame by grief, committed suicide.

Reports prevalent in the city early today said that Madero and his family were fleeing toward the eastern coast, and they would try to leave the country as quickly as possible. Members of the cabinet were reported to have resigned, although this could not be confirmed.

The melodramatic figure of the revolt is Col. Felix Diaz. He has all to gain and nothing to lose. If he is victorious, he will have power and life; if he loses he will be a dead man, and he would have been that anyway, in a short time.

Sunday morning Colonel Diaz, nephew of former President Diaz, and General Reyes, admittedly the "brains" of the Mexican revolutionists, were prisoners, under sentence to be shot to death for their part in the Vera Cruz uprising of last autumn.

A few hours later, freed from their cells by cadets of a military school, the two were at the head of the disaffected federals, knocking at the gates of the President's palace.

General Reyes' sentence was executed on the first exchange of fire. He fell in front of the palace, pierced by bullets of the palace guard, loyal to Madero.

ENLARGING REMOUNT STATION.

Government to Erect More Buildings And Make It "White City."

Winchester, Va., Feb. 10.—Contracts are to be let in the near future for the erection of more buildings at the government's new remount station near Front Royal, and there will be 10 smaller structures, to be occupied by the officers in charge and their families. All the buildings will be constructed of white hollow tile, and after streets are opened and graded and concrete sidewalks laid the colony will be known as the "White City."

The Government has obtained options on more land adjoining the vast tracts already owned by the United States, the intention being to ultimately make the Front Royal station the largest and most important remount depot in the country.

A dispatch from Oamaru, New Zealand, says: Capt. Robert F. Scott and his party were overwhelmed by a blizzard on their return journey from the South Pole. The entire party perished.

They reached the South Pole on the 18th of January, 1912.
Capt. Scott's party reached the exact point where Roald Amundsen planted the Norwegian flag at the South Pole.
They found there the hut constructed and left behind by Amundsen's party.

These facts were recorded in the documents found on the dead explorer's bodies when they were recovered.

The total number of deaths involved in the calamity is not exactly known, but it is believed that fifty or more scientists and sailors lost their lives.

GEN. BERNARDO REYES.

Killed in Mexico Yesterday.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The ballots of the 30,000 firemen employed on 54 Eastern railroads, it was announced unofficially in New York last night, show that 90 per cent. of the men favor an immediate strike unless the conference committee of railroad managers agrees to arbitration under the Federal Erdman act.

An entire family of four persons in Bluefield, W. Va., has been wiped out in twelve days, three succumbing to grief. Miss Maude Lilly, a daughter, died yesterday, the last victim. Andrew Lilly, the girl's brother, ended his life in a fit of despondency, and six days later the father, who was afflicted with heart trouble, died of shock.
Two days later the mother died, and the two were buried together last Friday. Miss Maude was too ill to attend the funeral and yesterday she succumbed, physicians attributing death to grief.

Manuel Arajo, President of Salvo-dor, died in the capital of that republic at 4:30 yesterday afternoon, as a result of wounds inflicted upon him by five assassins on the night of February 4.

Hundreds of whites and negroes went to the morgue in Evansville, Ind., yesterday to see the bodies of the three negroes shot down Saturday by Allen von Behren, 22 years old, son of B. F. von Behren, president of a large wood manufacturing plant here. Young von Behren, in his cell at the county jail, has been forbidden to see newspaper men or talk with anybody except his lawyers and his father about the case. He spends his time reading novels. There has been some talk of self-defense, but the impression is growing that his defense on trial will be insanity. There is no danger, it is said, of a race war.

It became known in Mount Vernon, New York yesterday that Donato Cardello, one of the three murderers electrocuted in Sing Sing prison at sunrise today made a confession in which he admitted committing three murders, instead of one. He is to die for the killing of Stephen Dixon at Ossining in May last. Two Italians employed on the water shed in Westchester county were murdered previously to the murder of Dixon, and their murderers were never captured. Cardello stabbed Dixon 30 times after a quarrel in a saloon. John Whalen, who was with Cardello at the time of the murder, confessed that Cardello did all of the stabbing, and he was let off with a sentence in Elmira.

Dibrell Rucker, a negro, was taken from the jail at Houston, Texas, Saturday afternoon by a mob, tied to an iron post in the courthouse yard, tar poured over him, then burned in the sight of the sheriff, who was locked in a cell at the jail and powerless to offer resistance. Rucker confessed to having murdered Mrs. J. C. Williams, wife of the county clerk, after cutting off her finger for a ring, and her ears for diamond ear rings. Early yesterday a mob hung Jim Jones, a negro, for the crime, but today Mrs.
Williams' ring was found in Rucker's possession. After the mob secured the negro and tarred him from head to foot, a brother of the murdered woman set him on fire. The father of Mrs.
Williams then came driving up in a buggy, and fired half a dozen shots into the man's body.

WANT TO SUCCEED DR. CARRINGTON

Four Richmond Men Candidates For Position of Grand Secretary.

PAYS $2,400 A YEAR.

Grand Master Andrews May Resign And Throw His Hat Into the Ring for Place of Deceased.

Richmond, Feb. 10.—Interest in the annual Masonic grand lodge meeting, which begins a three-day convention at the Masonic Temple tomorrow night, centres chiefly in the selection of a successor to the late grand secretary, Dr. George W. Carrington. The death of this officer, coming, as it did, only three weeks before the grand lodge meeting, left little time for the grooming of candidates, but at least a half dozen prominent Masons of the State are ready in the running.

Grand lodge officers who were willing to discuss the matter last night would venture no predictions on the election. Charles A. Nesbit, of this city, deputy grand secretary for the past seventeen years and since the death of Dr. Carrington acting secretary, was conceded by all to be a candidate with a good chance.

But the race is by no means restricted. Dr. J. W. Eggleston, a former grand master, is one of the avowed candidates, and so is Ben P. Owen, private secretary to Governor Mann.
Mr. Owen is past master of Manchester Lodge, No. 4, Tidewater Virginia, is stated, will put forth the name of Captain Edward N. Eubank, of Newport News, who is a past grand master with a long and honorable Masonic record. Another candidate is Past Grand Master George W. Wright, of Marion, and still another who is mentioned for the secretaryship is James H. Price, of this city, at present grand marshal.

The list of candidates promises to expand with the arrival of the delegations for tomorrow's convention. Besides those already enumerated, a number of names have been mentioned. The men themselves, however, have so far failed to announce themselves as candidates, and for that reason alone escape classification under that head. By the time of election, it is believed. At least a dozen prominent Masons will be in the race.

The post of grand secretary is one of the two paid offices in the gift of the grand lodge and carries an annual salary of $2,400. The grand treasurer is the only other paid officer. The other consideration which makes the post particularly desirable is the fact that the grand secretary, once elected, remains in office until removed by disability or death. This permanency is shared also by the grand treasurer and grand chaplain.

A rumor which lacks complete substantiation has it that Grand Master W. L. Andrews, of Roanoke, will resign his high office to become himself a candidate for the grand secretaryship.

Mrs. Cleveland Weds.
Princeton, N. J., Feb. 10.—Mrs.
Grover Cleveland and Thomas J. Preston, Jr., were married at 10:30 o'clock this morning by President John Grier Hibben of Princeton University, in Prospect, the executive residence of the university.

Japanese Premier Stoned.
Tokio, Japan, Feb. 10.—Prince Taro Katsura, premier and minister of foreign affairs, was stoned today by a mob in the street.

The stoning of Katsura came immediately after he had offered to the emperor his resignation and that of the other members of the cabinet.

POLICE COURT TODAY.

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Clyde Sullivan, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

J. P. Brady, charged with assaulting his wife, was dismissed.

James Prather, colored, charged with assaulting John Foster, colored, was fined $50.

Howard Carter, colored, charged with carrying a gun, was held for the Washington authorities.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union (the Willard) will meet tomorrow afternoon at 901 Prince street.

Chief of Police Goods received a telegram today from A. J. Bell, of Cobham, Va., stating that his store had been robbed last night of a quantity of merchandise including shoes, neckwear and jewelry, and that an Alexandria negro was suspected of being the thief. The police authorities were asked to look out for the stolen goods.

The Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular monthly meeting tonight.

Lyles Abel, employed at the Potomac railroad yards, was struck by a locomotive while at the yards Saturday night and also cut on the face and other parts of the body. He was brought to the Alexandria Hospital, where he was treated by Dr. W. M.
Smith.

The body of Mrs. Edith Hunter Janney, seventy years old, who died in Washington last night, will be brought here tomorrow and buried in the Presbyterian Cemetery. Mrs. Jan-ney formerly lived at Occoquan.

The Very Rev. Dr. Elliott, C. S. P., of the Apostolic Mission House, Catholic Church University, preached last night at the services at St. Mary's.

Next Thursday will be Patron's Day at the Lee School and parents of the children are invited to be present on that occasion.

The February term of the Circuit Court of Alexandria county will open its session at Alexandria county courthouse next Monday morning. Judge J.
B. T. Thornton will preside.

Chief Goods and Sergeant Wilkinson today arrested William Robinson, colored, on the charge of assaulting his wife.

The work of placing a sewer on Fairfax street, between Duke and Wolfe, is in progress, preparatory to paving that square with vitrified brick and laying granite sidewalks.

SERMON ON JAPAN.

Rev. John M. Ambler Delivers Interesting Discourse at St. Paul's Church.

At the morning service of St. Paul's church yesterday, Rev. John A. Ambler of Japan delivered the sermon.
The text was taken from that portion of the scriptures, telling of the multitudes of diseased who came to touch the hem of our Lord's garment and in the touching thereof were healed. He spoke of the disease of unbelief and reminded his hearers that in the touching of their Master lay the cure of this infirmity. Dr. Ambler also brought to the minds of the congregation the duty of the enlightened world to the unenlightened—saying that although our customs and habits and manners of every day life are so different from theirs, still there is one thing in common with all humanity—the same yearnings and needs are in every human heart and only through the touching of the Saviour of the mankind could these yearnings be satisfied. He gave many instances having come under his personal attention in the past nineteen years of his ministry in Japan which were full of pathos and while he made no appeal to the congregation for their support in such ministry, the instance he told of truly appealed to the Christian heart—especially one of a youth who so earnestly desired to accept Christ but could not believe the miracles of the Bible but when told to pray, lo! the prayer was answered. In the touching of the Master came the healing of his unbelief. With this healing, miraculous in itself, since by touching only, it is acquired, will come the enlightenment and the saving of all mankind, who are "all of one blood," whether oriental or occidental as we term the difference—and our lives, when in touch with Christ, the more beautiful and Christian-like while sojourning here are we gain the reward of sight as well as of touch of the Gracious Master who would dwell with us and make His home our hearts if we only signify by touching the hem of His garment—coming in prayer to Him.

DENIES REMOVAL FROM ALEXANDRIA

Councilman Williams Declares City is Still His Home.

HEARING THURSDAY.

Answer to Quo-Waranto is Made Today in Corporation Court and Hearing Set for Thursday.

Declaring that he was still a resident of the city of Alexandria, that his home was located in this city and that his residence in Cottage Park, Alexandria county, was only a temporary one, Julian Y. Williams, a member of the City Council of Alexandria, elected from the Second ward filed his answer in the Corporation Court this morning to the quo warranto proceedings which were brought in the name of the state of Virginia by Samuel G.
Brent, Commonwealth's Attorney, at the instigation of Frank C. Spinks, Howard W. Smith, H. R. Burke, Capt.
Bryan Charles E. Marshall, and J.
Fred Birrell, six other members of the Common Council.

The petitioners are seeking to oust Mr. Williams from the seat in Council on the ground that he has removed his home from the city and is now a resident of Alexandria county.

Judge Barley fixed next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock for the hearing of the evidence in the case.

Mr. Williams answer was as follows:

First: He admits that on the second Tuesday in June, 1910, he was, at the regular election held on that day in the City of Alexandria, Va., elected a member of the Common Council from the second ward of said city, for a term of four years, commencing on September 1, 1910, and ending on September 1, 1914, and that he duly qualified as such by taking the oath prescribed and entered upon the discharge of his duties as such member on the first day of September, 1910, and that he still continues to perform the duties.

Second: He admits that he was a resident of the city of Alexandria, Va., and of the second ward of said city at the time of said election and qualification, and he states that he is still a resident of said city and ward.

Third: He denies that during the year 1912, to wit: during the month of—, or at any other time that he removed from the City of Alexandria, Va., into the county of Alexandria, Va., and took up his residence at Cottage Park, in said county, but stated that the facts are as follows:

That more than a year ago he caused to be erected at Cottage Park, in Alexandria County, Va., a house in which he expected to spend the summer months, which house was completed in the month of January, 1912, and that about the first of June, 1912, he went to said house at Cottage Park, in Alexandria County, with the intention of spending several months, but with no intention whatever of giving up his residence in the City of Alexandria, Va., which residence he has owned for a number of years, and on which he has paid and is paying taxes, and in which practically all of his furniture is kept, on which furniture he has paid and is paying taxes, said residence being known as No. 206 North Royal street, in the Second ward of the City of Alexandria, Va.

That at the time he went to Alexandria county as aforesaid, he removed from his residence in the City of Alexandria, to his house in Alexandria county only his books and several pieces of furniture, leaving by far the greatest part of his furniture at his residence No. 206 North Royal street.

That in addition to his residence in the second ward in the City of Alexandria, Va., he has a place of business which he owns and on which he pays taxes, and in the second story of which it has always been his intention to construct apartments for living, in the event that he should, at any time, dispose of his present residence at 206 North Royal street, Alexandria.

That it was his intention, in the event of an early winter, to return

The Rev. Wallace Eugene Rollins, B.D.

NEW PROFESSOR AT SEMINARY
Rev. Wallace Rollins to Commence His Work at the Theological Seminary.

The Rev. Wallace Eugene Rollins, B. D., whose election to the chair of Church History at the Episcopal Theological Seminary near this city, in succession to Dr. R. K. Massie, resigned, as already announced in the Gazette, will commence his work next week at the conclusion of the intermediate examinations now going on.

Prof. Rollins was born at Marshall, N. C., January 28th, 1870. On account of the poor condition of the schools in his native town he was sent at an early age to a private school at Raleigh, N. C., where in due course he passed to the high school of that city. In 1884 he became a student at the well known Bingham Military School, then located at Mebane, N. C., but now at Asheville, N. C., where he was prepared for college.

In the fall of 1888 he entered the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he spent four years, graduating with the degree of A. B. in June 1892.

In the fall of that year Mr. Rollins entered the theological department of Yale University and registered for the degree of B. D. This he obtained in June, 1895, and on account of his high grade of scholarship was granted a residential fellowship at the University. But desiring to begin the active work of the ministry at once, he resigned this fellowship, and was admitted a candidate for holy orders in the diocese of Southern Virginia, under Bishop Randolph, where he soon began his parochial work. His first charge was at Covington, Va., which he afterwards resigned to become rector of St. Thomas's Church, Christiansburg, Va. For the past four years he has been chaplain and professor of Biblical literature at Sweet Brier Female College, where he was held in high honor as a scholar and teacher, and was also much beloved in his work as chaplain.

He comes to the Seminary with the highest recommendations from Bishops Randolph and Tucker, and other clergy who are acquainted with his ability and work, so that a most successful career no doubt lies before him in the important chair of Ecclesiastical History which he now occupies at the old seminary.

In October, 1903, Professor Rollins was married to Miss Helen Collins, of Asheville, N. C. They will reside at "Maywood," recently the home of Professor Massie, and preceding the latter's incumbency, for many years that of Dr. Walker, the successor of Dr. Sparrow in the chair of Theology.
Professor and Mrs. Rollins are assured of a warm welcome, and will be a great addition to Seminary Hill.

from his home in Alexandria county andria before Christmas, but that at the request of his wife he remained in the county owing to condition of his wife's health.

That as is well known the fall and present winter have been the mildest known for years in this section of the state, and that it was only on this account and on account of his wife's health that he has remained in the county up to this time, without the slightest intention now or at any future time of giving up his residence in the second ward of Alexandria, where, as above stated, he owns, in addition to his residence, a piece of business.

Fourth: Further answering he says, that he presumes that he relat-

PLAN DECORATIONS FOR INAUGURATION

Alexandria Merchants May be Asked to Decorate Places of Business.

VISITORS EXPECTED.

Chamber of Commerce May Take up Question at Meeting Tonight—Action Probable.

On March 4th, the United States will witness the inauguration of Woodrow Wilson, first Democratic president of the United States, and the suggestion has been made that Alexandria, one of the seats of Democracy in the country, be appropriately decorated in honor of the event. Thousand of visitors will come here during inauguration week, many to visit the points of interest connected with Alexandria's historic past and others on their way to Mt. Vernon to visit the home and tomb of the immortal Washington.

In addition it is expected that many former Alexandrians who are now living in other parts of the country will return on a visit to their friends and relatives and it would be a splendid thing for them to see the old town in gala attire.

It is planned to have all the business houses on the principal streets of the city as well as the residences handsomely decorated and also to have other attractions that will bring many of the inaugural visitors to this city.

The suggestion will be given consideration at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce tonight when some action will in all probability be taken by that body looking to the appointment of committees who will have the matter in charge. Carroll Pierce, president of the Chamber, said this morning that he would be glad to bring the matter to the attention of the Chamber and thought that it might be possible to carry it to a successful conclusion.

Lopold Ruben, president of the Retail Merchants Association and Robert E. Knight, a former president of the same organization, were interviewed in regard to the proposition and it was their opinion that the plan was a feasible one.

One of the suggestions in connection with the proposed entertainment is to have a band concert in Alexandria on the afternoon and evening of March 5th.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT OF RAZORS.

was received by the Gazette

CORPORATION COURT.

The February term of the Corporation Court was opened this morning at 11 o'clock by Judge Louis C. Barclay. The docket was read and several small cases were set for trial in the term. The following business was transacted:

Permission granted to George H. Robinson and Sons, and J. C. Gatas, to file a petition in the suit of Henry K. Field and others vs. D. Bendheim and Sons.

Verdict for $12.10 in suit of J. H. McGowan vs. Jesse J. Mitchell.

THE "WANKEPIN" IS SOLD.

Located along the banks of the Dyke, just below Alexandria, are a number of cottages and arks used especially in summer as places of recreation. After the turmoil and trials of a busy day there is no spot nearby where nature seems to bestow such a blessing as here. In the shade of the morning and evening the birds delight the ear with their sweetest songs and the swift current of this ever flowing stream gladdens the eye and refreshes nature. One of these places is known as "Wankepin." This pleasure resort was owned by Council Charles B. Marshall and many Alexandrians and prominent visitors to our city have been the recipients of his bountiful hospitality. It is one of the prettiest cottages in this summer village, but having bought a summer home at Belmont, a few miles further down the road, Mr. Marshall has sold the "Wankepin" to Mrs. Mildred Pink, who will take possession March 1st. While many regret that he has decided to leave the place he has so long occupied they wish him success in his new quarters at Belmont.

TEXAS OIL PLANT CUTTED NEGRO IS SERIOUSLY CUT

Loss Estimated at Between Eight and Ten Thousand Dollars From Conflagration

Shortly before four o'clock yesterday afternoon passersby discovered smoke emanating from the warehouse of the Texas Oil Company, near the northeast corner of Wolfe and Union streets. They turned in an alarm and the department was soon upon the scene. By the time the engines got to work the neighborhood was densely packed with people who had come from all sections of the city.

Huge volumes of smoke were ascending from the structure, rendering it almost impossible for the firemen to work. They were able to remain but a few minutes in the house, and it was almost impossible to get at the fire. The building was soon flooded, but the smoke continued to rise in clouds, and it was near the close of the day before the department left the scene.

A light southeast breeze was prevailing at the time, and the firemen were able to confine the flames to the building in which it originated.

The contents of the structure, consisting of a large quantity of lubricating oil in barrels and several carloads of tarred paper, were practically destroyed. George E. Parsell, local agent of the oil company, stated that the stock in the building was valued at from $8,000 to $10,000, but an estimate of the loss could not be made until an inventory could be taken.

Soon after the blaze started, firemen succeeded in entering the office in the north end of the building and removed the fixtures.

The building belongs to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company and it was for a number of years used as their depot in this city.

Its loss is covered by insurance.

NEGRO WITH A GUN.

Officer Bell on Saturday night saw a strange negro in the western section of the city armed with a magazine gun. He followed the darkey into a saloon where he put him under arrest and after taking the weapon from him. The prisoner gave his name as Howard Carter, and said he was from Washington. After having been locked up it was determined to hold the prisoner for the Washington authorities, and they were accordingly notified of the arrest. He is suspected of stealing the gun in that city.

The Southern Railway Company is placing the material upon the ground for the trestle which is to be erected for the purpose of placing coal upon the premises of the city gas plant in the northeastern section of the city. Officials of the company say the trestle will have been erected and in operation by the middle of March.

Assault is Fined Fifty Dollars in the Police Court This Morning

About half past eleven o'clock last Saturday night Officers Campbell and Garvey, who were in the vicinity at the time, arrested James Prather, colored, who had made a murderous attack on John Foster, also colored. The latter was bleeding profusely from a long gash on the left side of the neck, while the end of one of the fingers on his left hand had been carried away and part of his coat cut into ribbons. Foster was conducted to the Alexandria Hospital where he received surgical attention.

The case came up in the Police Court this morning. Foster appeared with his head in bandages and exhibiting his wounded finger and slashed coat. According to his version of the affair, he was in debt to Prather to the amount of $1.65, and the cutting was the outcome of Prather's ineffectual efforts to collect the same. Prather, it was alleged, had called on Foster several times during the night for a settlement, and Foster being unable to fix any day for payment, Prather determined to use his knife upon the delinquent.

Prather in his statement said the assault was the outcome of an attack made by Foster upon him. Justice Caton fined the accused $50.

SWORE OF FOR A YEAR.

Late Saturday night word was brought to the station house that J. P. Brady had assaulted his wife in their rooms in the Braddock House. Officer Ferguson went to the assistance of the woman and took her husband in custody. He was brought to the Police Court this morning and took his stand in dock accompanied by his baby. His wife upon being called upon to testify denied that the prisoner had assaulted her. He had, she said, been drinking, and hurt her feeling during his loquacity. She requested Justice Caton to make her husband swear off from drinking. The prisoner, who has recently served twenty days in jail, signified his willingness to take the required oath, which was administered, after which he was allowed to depart.

FUNERAL OF GRAND SECRETARY.

Delegations representing Potomac and Sarepta Lodges of Odd Fellows, and Marley Encampment, of this city, departed this morning for Richmond, to attend the funeral of T. Wiley Davis, grand secretary of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows in Virginia, which will take place this afternoon.

Messrs. D. R. Stansbury, P. M. Bradshaw and C. W. O'Meara, left this morning to attend the funeral.

The funeral will take place from Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church. Officers of the Grand Lodge will conduct the services of the order over the body. The Odd Fellows will assemble at the residence and will march to Trinity Church and from there to Oakwood Cemetery, where the body will be laid to rest with the full rites of the order. It is expected that a large number of the past grand masters of the State will be present at the funeral.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

TEST VALIDITY OF ACT.

R. F. & P. May Have to Pay the State All That is Demanded.

Richmond, Feb. 10.—Although stockholders of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac R. R., in session several days ago ratified the compromise agreement whereby the road was to pay the State and cities, counties and towns through which it passes the sum of $338,000 in back taxes, it is understood that a friendly suit will be instituted shortly by one of the stockholders to test the statute under which the commission acting for the State in the matter was created.

This action will most likely be instituted in the City Circuit Court of Richmond. Meanwhile, no settlement of the tax claim will be made, it is said.

This situation was precipitated by the stand taken by State Auditor Moore, who declared that he would not accept the money from the railroad if the attorney general held that the State commission was created unconstitutionally. That official has not yet rendered an opinion upon the subject, but it is understood that he believes the procedure has not been strictly legal.

Personally, Mr. Moore believes that the railroad should be forced to pay the full amount of back taxes, instead of a part, as proposed in the agreement ratified by the stockholders.

Burglars Used Chloroform.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—That chloroform was used by the two burglars that robbed the home of W. H. Kelly, on the Hermitage Road, near the fair grounds early Friday morning, is almost certain. The drowsiness and illness which was experienced by Mr. and Mrs. Kelly after they were awakened next morning can be accounted for only through the use of the narcotic.

Two weeks ago the same house was burglarized. About $12 was taken at that time. Yesterday morning the burglars overlooked more than $1,000 worth of jewelry which was lying in a drawer in the bureau of a spare room which they did not ransack. The jewelry consisted of three gold watches, several necklaces, brooches, pins and other ornaments. Most of the collection is of solid gold set with expensive gems.

Mrs. Kelley also suffered greatly from nervousness yesterday, as a picture of a masked burglar, holding a pistol to her head as she slept, flashed through her mind.

Hits Mother With Lighted Lamp.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—During a heated argument Saturday night in the home of Young Richmond, No. 116 East Sixteenth street, Laura Coleman is alleged to have thrown a lighted lamp at her father, Young Richmond. She missed her father and struck her mother. The explosion of the lamp not only badly burned the mother, but it set fire to the house.

Both the ambulance and the fire department were summoned. They both responded promptly. The fire was extinguished before it did much damage, but the mother of the woman who threw the lamp had to be taken to the hospital, where she is lingering in agony.

Laura Coleman was arrested and is now in the Third Station. She will be held to answer to Squire Morris tomorrow morning.

Fire in Distillery.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—Fire early yesterday morning wiped out the plant of the Henrico Whiskey Distilling Company, located near Evergreen Cemetery in Henrico County, entailing a loss of approximately $30,000 and destroying seventy or eighty barrels of whiskey.

"The loss was complete, not a dollar of insurance being carried by the concern, of which Starkey Hare is president."

The flames are supposed to have started in the boiler room of the plant while the fireman was using a fire wand to thaw out some pipes, preparatory to getting up steam by the time the employees reported for work.

MURDERED HIS WIFE.

Nelson V. Carter May Get Speedy Trial.

Fredericksburg, Va., Feb. 10.—Nelson V. Carter, 45 years old, has been arrested and landed in the Spotsylvania county jail on the charge of brutally murdering his wife after he had driven her from his home Thursday following a violent quarrel.

Domestic infelicity, followed by divorce proceedings, which were instituted two years ago and which were later withdrawn by Mrs. Carter, who charged her husband with cruelty and abuse, caused the tragedy.

Carter and his wife had not lived happily together since the divorce proceedings were compromised and dismissed. He fired five shots at his wife after he had driven her from the house into the yard, where her body lay in a pool of blood until neighbors and officers arrived on the scene.

Mrs. Carter, who was formerly Miss Hattie B. Hall, was a highly esteemed and greatly beloved woman. She leaves four daughters, whose ages are 5, 8, 18 and 20.

The slayer has been sent on to the grand jury by the coroner's jury.

Carter declares he deliberately shot his wife to kill her, and that he would do so again under similar circumstances.

FATE OF THE ALLENS.

Believed Younger Will be Saved From Execution.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 10.—Departure of Governor Mann for Washington county, where he was scheduled to deliver an address Saturday before the Civic Association of Emory and Henry College, makes it practically certain that he will take no action this week in regard to the fate of Floyd Allen and Claude Allen now waiting execution of death sentence in the Virginia penitentiary.

During the past week the governor has had but little time for consideration of the petition of the condemned men for commutation of sentence, but it is believed he will buckle down to the proposition in earnest the first of next week and within a few days thereafter will probably be prepared to make known his decision. He will issue a statement embodying the reasons for his action, whatever it may be.

Those close to the governor believe he will finally determine to commute the sentence of Claude Allen to life imprisonment, while he will let the law take its course in the case of Claude's father who is generally credited with being primarily responsible for the Hillsville tragedy, although many of the Allen sympathizers insist that Dexter Goad, clerk of the court, actually started the shooting which resulted in the killing of Judge Massie and four other persons.

Should Sidney Allen live to serve out the thirty-five year sentence imposed on him by the juries sitting in his cases at Wytheville for the murder of Judge Thornton L. Massie and court officers March 14 last, he will leave the Virginia state prison only to be arrested by the federal authorities for alleged counterfeiting in North Carolina.

It has become known that D. Lawrence Groner, United States district attorney for the Eastern district of Virginia, has just placed in the hands of United States Marshal Clarence H. Smithers a warrant which is to be served upon Allen by the superintendent of Virginia prison to have the man held after the expiration of his term at the penitentiary for trial in the United States court for the Western district of North Carolina on the charge of coining counterfeit $20 gold pieces.

The federal warrant issued by Attorney Groner, however, would mean that when Allen walks out of the Virginia prison in 1943 it will be but to walk into the custody of federal officers, who will hold him upon a charge of counterfeiting.

It is understood that the real motive causing the serving out of the federal warrant by Marshal Smithers at this time is a desire that certain rewards offered by the government for the apprehension of Sidney Allen when he was in Des Moines, a fugitive from justice, may be collected.

Compromise Verdict.

Emporia, Va., Feb. 10.—Charles Newsom, charged with the killing of Wade Ferguson in December of last year, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter by the Petersburg jury Saturday morning, after deliberating one hour and two minutes.

The jury fixed the boy's punishment at three years in the penitentiary. This was a compromise verdict among the jury.

MARTIN AND WILSON.

Denies Interview Printed in Richmond Paper.

Harrisonburg, Va., Feb. 10.—On June 23rd, several days before the nomination of Woodrow Wilson a Richmond morning paper published a special telegram purporting to quote Senator Thomas S. Martin in regard to the Democratic nomination. The alleged interview, which was reprinted in the Harrisonburg Daily News, and which has several times been referred to editorially, expressed a preference for Underwood. According to the correspondent Senator Martin paid a high compliment to Underwood, and then closed with the following words:

"Of course, I do not mean that Virginia should keep on voting for Underwood if it turns out that there is no chance for him. She would then go to some one else. Perhaps Clark, perhaps Harmon—to any one rather than to Woodrow Wilson, who has done nothing to deserve party honors unless to wreck it in his own state."

W. J. Showalter, an old Rockingham boy, called upon Senator Martin a few days ago and asked him about the reported interview. Senator Martin replied:

"Of course, I never said such an asinine thing as that. I never gave out any interview at Baltimore. It is a lie out of the whole cloth."

"Then why did you not deny it?" asked Mr. Showalter.

"Deny it," Senator Martin ejaculated, "why should I dignify such an evident lie as that? I do not care to deny such rubbish now or at any other time."

"DRY" TO RENEW FIGHT.

Anti-Saloon League to Meet in Roanoke on the 18th.

Richmond, Feb. 10.—State Secretary J. D. McAllister is looking forward to one of the largest Anti-Saloon league conventions ever held in Virginia when the "dry" hosts assemble in Roanoke next Tuesday, February 18th.

Strenuous efforts are being made to secure a large attendance, as it is recognized that only by moral suasion and by demonstration of the fact that the majority of the people of the State favor the enabling act can any thing be done at the coming session of the general assembly, as the old senate, which defeated the Jordan bill, will hold over.

That there will be a renewal of the fight for the enabling act is certain, Dr. McAllister says that efforts to win over the "wet" senators, whose constituents are "dry" and to ensure the reelection of the members of the House who voted "dry" will be the chief aim of the league.

The enabling act will be the slogan of the "dry" forces at the Roanoke convention and the program will be built around it. Speakers of national prominence have been secured to arouse enthusiasm and to tell of what has been done in other states of the Union. The report of the various committees will deal with this feature, a special interest centering in the report of the legislative committee, which will outline the plan of campaign in the primaries of next summer, when members of the House will be chosen.

during carnival week will certainly please and interest. Six models will be shown, some in two coors. There will be one stripped chassis to display the operation of the motor. The salesrooms are so handsomely decorated and visitors will be taken to any exhibit or to the Mt. Vernon station in the cars which Mr. R. H. Martin, manager of the Buick branch will have ready.

H. B. Lamm, Jr., will have a fine exhibit during the carnival. This is the first time that the Mitchell line of cars has been exhibited in Washington.
As there is a Mitchell owned in Alexandria it will be of interest to see the new models. Mrs. Hill has a Mitchell 6 and Harrison Kirk of this city owns a Rambler purchased of Mr. Leary.
The well-known Chalmers is to be well displayed at the Zell Motor Car Company's salesrooms on H street.
A fine parts display will make plain the operation of new features connected with the new Chalmers car of 1913 model.

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Test.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It is Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Annie Scott, 110 Prince street, strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure that had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out, and I also had dizzy spells.
Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo,

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, Feb. 10.—Representative Wesley H. Gray, chairman of the House Committee on Military Affairs, has reported to the House the bill introduced by Representative Cullen early in the present Congress to protect the monuments already on the battlefields of Bull Run and any other monuments that may be thereon erected.
The bill, as it is reported to the House from the military committee directs the secretary of war to inquire into the practicability of purchasing the land upon which the aforesaid monuments stand, the advisability of making the purchase thereof and the price which will have to be paid for this ground.

In the month of June, 1865, United States troops belonging to the Department of Washington, took possession of certain lands on the battlefields of Bull Run and erected two monuments and dedicated them to the memory of the patriots who fell July 21, 1861 and August 28, 1862, in the battles known as the first and second Bull Run. These monuments still stand on private property, the title to which has never been acquired by the United States. Many military organizations which took part in these battles desire to commemorate the same and are anxious to have the government purchase the ground upon which these monuments are erected and it was for this purpose that Representative Cullen introduced the bill.

Representative Cullen has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives for the relief of the heirs of Frederick A. Holden, deceased. The bill is to pay to these heirs the sum of $5,130 for the occupation and destruction of the house and furniture of Holden, situated in the town of Cere-go, Wayne county, Va., now West-Virginia, by the military authorities of the United States during the Civil war.

MEXICO AGAIN IN FERMENT.

Sanguinary Scenes in Capital City—Two Hundred Persons Killed.

Following a day of bloodshed in Mexico City, in which 200 persons were killed and 500 others wounded, the fate of Mexico under President Francisco I. Madero is trembling in the balance.

A large part of the federal troops revolted, released Gen. Felix Diaz, nephew of the former President, and Gen. Bernardo Reyes another Diaz adherent, who had been confined in Belgian prison since last December, and with these two popular idols at their head, descended upon the national palace.

President Madero, forewarned of the movement, hastily summoned those troops who had remained loyal to him, and, with the aid of the machine guns, met the insurgents in front of the palace. For more than an hour the fighting was the scene of fearful carnage, soldiers and spectators alike being shot down by the bullets of the opposing forces. It is reported that Reyes was shot through the head during the fighting.

Ambassador Wilson, in a dispatch received at the State Department, after midnight this morning, reported that it is rumored in Mexico City that the Federal arsenal has surrendered to Gen. Felix Diaz. The police artillery and rurales from Tacubaya have declined for Diaz, and that the troops in the National Palace are the only forces in Mexico City still loyal to President Madero.

The Ambassador stated that Gen.
Banquet and Angeles are reported to be coming to the rescue of Madero with troops from Toluca and Cuernavaca, but that it is impossible to obtain accurate details of what has happened.

Not less than $400,000,000 has been lost by Americans in Mexico since Madazo captured Juarez according to conservative estimates. No account is taken of the tremendous damage to the National Railways of Mexico, which it was necessary practically to rebuild between Chihuahua and Juarez less than three times. Estimates place the value of American property in Mexico at the beginning of the Madazo administration at not less than $100,000,000. Two thirds of that is swamp, away, it is declared—and Mexico is no nearer peace than it was two years ago. All business has been closed for months and banks have closed down on all except a few old borrowers. Legitimate business is unable to get money necessary to guarantee a continuance, and trade is stagnated in every part of the republic.

GIRLS DEFEAT MANASSAS.

High School Girls Win Basketball Game by Score of 13 to 7.

In the biggest game of the season, the A. H. S. girls' basketball team defeated their opponents, the Manassas High School, on the latter's floor Friday night. The score, 13 to 7, indicates that the game was very interesting throughout. The game was played in two halves, the first ending 9 to 7 in favor of Alexandria, the final score being 13 to 7. The game was interesting throughout on both sides, but the excellent team work of the A. H. S. girls prevailed, particularly the keen goal throwing of Miss Lucile Dienelt, who made several baskets from some of the hardest positions on the floor. The refereeing of Miss Boswell was very satisfactory as was the work of the other officials.

The line up and score of Manassas and Alexandria are as follows:

A. H. S.
Miss Maskott S. C.
Misses Blake and Dienelt F.
Misses Martin and Sims Guards Miss Beardon Center.
Manassas H. S.
Miss Metz S. C.
Misses Hayden and Bexrode F.
Misses Leamon and Horndon G.
Miss Hayden C.
Referee, Miss Boswell, Umpire, Miss Round. Goals, Miss Dienelt, 3; Miss Blake, 2; Miss Hayden, 2; free tosses, Miss Dienelt (3); Miss Hayden, (3).

RICHMOND BOY OWNS UP.

Admits he is Percy Riddick and That He Gave Wrong Name.

Baltimore, Feb. 10.—After baffling the police for four days in their effort to establish his identity, a 16-year-old wanderer, who gave his name as Charles Kent, confessed to his right name and home to Brother Paul, director of St. Mary's Industrial School last night.

"My name is not Charles Kent," he old Brother Paul, "but my right name is Percy Riddick, and my home is at Twenty-seventh and Marshall streets, Richmond, Va., where my parents live."

Three days ago—on Friday—the boy, who was known as Kent, stood before Justice Saylor, at the Western Police station, and said that his name was Charles Kent that his mother and father were dead.

According to information from Richmond and by the confession of the boy, Riddick's parents are not dead. Or the contrary they have been searching the Middle Atlantic States for their runaway son.

The boy received a good education and attended St. Patrick's High School in Richmond. Last Thursday night Patrolman Beltz, of the Western district, found him almost unconscious from the cold. He was without a vest or an overcoat and told the policeman that he had arrived in Baltimore on a freight train.

The thermometer was in the twenties and Beltz quickly sent the boy to the Western Police Station. Round Sergeant Leverton immediately ordered a warm meal for him. He ate ravenously and told the police that it was the first meal that he had had for two days.

Marshal Farnan will be notified of the boy's identity. He will communicate with Richmond.

DAUGHTER RESCUES FATHER.

Pounds Head of Rabid Dog With Stone After Parent is Bitten.

Roanoke, Feb. 10.—Mr. M. D. Altic, of Black Rock, Franklin county, arrived in the city Saturday afternoon from Richmond, where he has been for the past three weeks taking the Pasteur treatment for bites by a dog afflicted with hydrophobia. Mr. Altic is visiting his daughter, Mrs. N.
E. Sparks, of 203 Eleventh street, S.
E.

He relates a most interesting story of the bravery of his daughter, Miss Mecia Altic, who killed the dog with a rock while the father, after being stripped of his clothes and badly bitten at several places on his body, had caught the brute and was holding him.
Mr. Altic was in his barnyard looking after his stock when the dog which was a very large one, attacked him.
A terrible struggle ensued between the man and the rabid beast. He finally succeeded in getting a firm hold on the dog's throat. Miss Altic ran to her father's assistance and with a rock pounded the brute's head into a jelly. Mr. Altic was bitten on January 14th. He immediately went to Rocky Mount, where he was advised to go to Richmond for treatment. The dog's head was shipped to Richmond for examination and was pronounced as being a genuine case of hydrophobia.

SOUVENIRS WILL BE GIVEN CARNIVAL WEEK

WASHINGTON AUTO CARNIVAL OPENS

LATE MODELS ARE HERE

Handsome Souvenirs Will be Given Visitors and Music Will be Salesroom's Feature.

The all week auto carnival was formerly opened today with a monster parade of motor cars, over a thousand automobiles participating in the parade which represented all of the well known makes and displayed a great number of the new 1913 models which are certainly attractive from the standpoint of the layman, being built along lines of simplicity and classic beauty, with trimmings to match and accessories that make the 1913 model car very attractive to buyers.

C. W. Long has been active in the work of seeing that all arrangements made by dealers for the comfort and convenience of visitors are carried out, and that each exhibition will be ready to receive visitors every afternoon and evening during carnival week.

One of the innovations of the carnival, causing favorable comment among prospective buyers, is the arrangements made by the dealers to inaugurate a special automobile service during carnival week carrying visitors from one salesroom to another in order that they may inspect the various makes of cars.

Handsome souvenirs will be given to the visitors during the week. They arrived yesterday but the dealers are withholding the exact nature of the favors in order to surprise the public. Many of the dealers have arranged for music in their salesrooms each evening during the week.

Visitors to the exhibition rooms of W. P. Barnhart and Company will be shown a new fine Cream and Gold car, a Warren Six, which is a duplicate of the car sold to Eddy Foy the well known comedian. The Barnhart Company has the largest service department south of New York, it is stated. It is all under glass, the entire roof being of steel frame construction and glass looks like an immense hot house except that automobiles are housed in place of flowers. This glass covered service department will accommodate 50 automobiles at one time.

The Reo line of handsome cars are to be fully displayed at the Barnhart Motor Car Company salesrooms, and all visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the new model car which sells for $1,095. There are several features connected with the new Reo which should interest the prospective purchaser of a car, whether it is wanted for touring or for pleasure.

For a medium priced car the Hupmobile displayed by the Washington Auto Service Company and called the quality car, will be of interest to persons desiring a well built easy running roadster or touring car. The display will well repay the visit of any one interested in seeing a good running classy car adopted for general use or for pleasure.

Cook and Stoddard are to display a fine line of Cadillacs which line has been on the market over ten years and is considered an exceptionally well built car and certainly looks it. Louis Hertle, of Alexandria, has just purchased a Cadillac touring car, one of the 1913 models, while Dr. Hugh McGuire has ordered a Cadillac Roadster. Mr. Sheppard will have on display a special cut open show chassis, the same one which was on exhibition at the Madison Square Garden in New York during the show last month.

The handsome Studebaker line of roadsters and touring cars will be shown equipped with all the latest devices which go to make up a perfect easy running and easily operated car. The Studebaker touring cars may be purchased for as low as $900, fully equipped, while the line contains delivery cars that sell as low as $800.

The Dupont Garage Company will entertain visitors handsomely. They are to give every visitor a special souvenir, a large quantity having been ordered specially made for carnival week. Decorations and the newest models of the Hudson 37 cars will be shown visitors. This is one of the oldest automobile concerns in Washington, having their service department well established and employing a system to keep track of customers cars that prevent joy riding.

Here are some Ford facts. The Ford Motor Company, last year required 12,970 freight cars, in which to ship (Continued on page five.)
